New Info from the No Scum Allowed Saloon in White Oaks

Are you ready? The No Scum Allowed Saloon has a great month of March scheduled to kick off our spring and summer happenings!

St. Patrick's Day will be full of Irish music, Guinness pints, corned beef and cabbage, and Irish stew! Find the 4 leaf clover and see what happens! Come on out to see the green on Saturday, March 17th!

The infamous La Ultima will be helping us dust off and polish the dance floor on Saturday, March 31st, by providing the best tunes ever. Come join us for some boot scootin, friends, food, and fun.

Don't forget dry camping and the White Oaks Retreat Airbnb. Just ask Karen or email her at scumallowedsaloon@gmail.com!

Free firewood is available again this year along the roads in the Sun Valley, LaJunta and Little Creek subdivisions behind the Alto Post Office at the following locations: Mogul near the Sun Valley solar and the water well site. Additional locations are expected to become available this coming week.

Tuesday, March 13th, is Candidate Filing Day for the 2018 Primary Election.

- The Lincoln County Clerk is the proper filing officer for candidates filing for County Offices and Magistrate Judge positions in Lincoln County.
- Candidates may file their Declaration of Candidacy at the Lincoln County Clerk's Office 300 Central Ave Carrizozo, NM 88301
- Beginning at 9 AM to 5 PM on March 13, 2018. Drawing for ballot position will be shortly after 5:00 PM.

Candidates may obtain additional information from the Candidate Guide posted on the New Mexico Secretary of State's website at:

http://www.sos.state.nm.us/uploads/files/2018%20Candidate%20Guide%20v2_2.pdf

Or may contact the Lincoln County Clerk's office at 1-800-687-2705 ext 6.

As a reminder there are three major parties recognized for the 2018 Primary: Democrat, Republican, and Libertarian. To run as a member of a major party the candidates voter registration must show affiliation with that party on the date of the governor's proclamation for the Primary Election and reside within the proper district.

Open positions in Lincoln County include:

County Commissioner District 2;
 County Commissioner District 4;
 County Commissioner District 5;
 County Clerk;
 County Treasurer
 Magistrate Judges Divisions I and II.

ALSO as a reminder in 2016 New Mexico State Statute 1-4-2 was amended to allow 17 year olds who will be 18 by the date of the General Election (November 6, 2018) to register prior to books closing for the Primary Election (May 8, 2018) and vote in the Primary! So if you are 17 and will be 18 by November 6th, you can register and vote in the Primary in June!!!

Lincoln County Commissioners Special meeting at 12 NOON Tuesday, March 13th, at the Commission Chambers in the Lincoln County Court House. see attached amended agenda

The Land and Natural Resources Committee (LANRAC) meeting scheduled for March 13, 2018 has been cancelled due to lack of agenda items. The next regular meeting is scheduled for April 10, 2018.

ISLE OF SKY NURSERY in White Oaks specializes in dwarf heirloom apple trees found throughout New Mexico as well as native and locally adapted fruits, berries, hardy perennials and herbs. Remember to water your plants as weather allows -- they need hydration all year round. So when the temps allow, give them a good soaking as much as possible!

The Nursery is open Fridays thru Saturdays

from 9 am to 5 pm

Follow the signs through White Oaks to 174 White Oaks Canyon Road.

It's time to start seeds and prep your planting areas. I use and recommend BLACK GOLD organic seed starting mix and have a good supply in stock now. I also have a complete line of Down to Earth fertilizers and soil amendments. New this year is Square Foot Gardening Mix, a complete organic growing mix for containers and raised beds. Each bag is 1 cubic foot.

Come check out my big selection of dwarf apple trees, ready to plant now. Also available are goji berries, blackberries, bare root strawberry bundles and much more! This year, be proactive about your health and grow a little apple tree. My super dwarfs fruit fast and grow in very limited space or large containers.

Need a great gift for someone: My gift certificates are still available and provide the most unique and special gift you can give....

ENMU at Ruidoso is launching a versatile occupational technical training program that will ultimately serve the wind energy development and transmission industries in northern Lincoln County and elsewhere across New Mexico as the wind industry continues to expand [see flyers attached].

The ENMU program is a series of industry certificates which enrollees in the non-credit training can earn for use in a number of different careers in our region, primarily for the wind and electric power industry. The Lincoln County Workforce Center is responsible for identifying and screening applicants for the training. Depending on the qualifications, applicants may be eligible for training funds to pay for their training.

Interested applicants should call the Workforce office at 575-258-1730 as soon as possible to complete the application process and secure a place in the initial training, which will take place in late April.

The Caboose/Visitors Center is now open through October on Fridays and Saturdays from 10 am – 2 pm. VOLUNTEERS WOULD BE WELCOME FOR SUNDAYS THROUGH THURSDAYS. INTERESTED? Call Gwendolyn Watson at 575-648-4422 for more details and to apply.

Albert Einstein, Citizen of the World -- Deborah Geary has gathered enough Albert Einstein material to fill our Library Bookstore's display case. Come check out her love of Albert Einstein books, photos, Einstein fabric dolls in formal attire and casual clothing, finger puppets, magnets, drawings, and other items. Some of her collection pieces were even too large to bring into the Library Bookstore! Deborah has collected Albert Einstein memorabilia for over thirty five years, and The Einstein "exhibit" will be on display until Friday, March 16th. Drop by and see for yourself!

LIMINA GALLERY is celebrating World Storytelling Day in Carrizozo!

YOU ARE INVITED to come and hear a few delightful and thought-provoking tales of WISE FOOLS, this year's WSD theme. The aim of World Storytelling Day is to celebrate the art of oral storytelling, with as many people as possible around the world telling and listening to stories in their own languages on the same day. Every year, World Storytelling Day is observed on the spring equinox in the northern hemisphere and on the first day of autumn equinox in the southern. On this day, people all over the world gather together to share stories and enjoy community.

March 20th, 2018, from 5:30 – 7 pm

LIMINA GALLERY 412 12TH Street, Carrizozo, NM 88301

This event is FREE to the community.

Our next monthly CREATIVE AGING meeting is Friday, March 23rd, at 10 am. AA Studios presents "Chaos to Peace" by Las Cruces Painter Kathleen Deasy. AA Studios is located behind 2645 Dona Ana Road on Calle de Oro and is the studio of painter Roy van der Aa. The show will run through April 8th and is open by appointment (call 1-575-520-8752).

Kathleen Deasy presents her series of paintings Chaos to Peace, Seekers and Wanderers. Chaos to Peace are 12 canvases 10x10" each, representing a journey from Chaos to Peace. We all face times of Chaos in our lives as individuals or as a society as a whole. This series represents the Chaos occurring and the hope for Peace afterwards. The Wanderers and the Seekers are sculpted figures on canvas in oils and acrylics. They depict figures searching for their place as they travel alone and in pairs. They represent Nomads who just keep moving through whatever comes in their path.

Deasy's work will be joined by pieces by gallery owner Roy van der Aa. "As we spoke about the work," says van der Aa, "it was clear they would be amplified by paintings I had done during the second Iraq war." These artworks are dark, sardonic and somewhat subversive, and the art will be hung in a cycle going from dark to light. The artists will lay out a metaphoric journey hoping that each of us can recognize our place on that journey. Deasy and van der Aa also open their studios as part of the "Colorful Trails" second Saturday art tour with Penny Duncklee, Leslie Toombs and Sonya Fe.

Carrizozo Music, Inc. holds its 3rd annual fundraiser on Sunday, April 8th, to include a spaghetti dinner, silent auction, and a Portico Concert featuring the Chicano Stringband music of Lone Piñon. In addition, Fiddler Jordan Wax will be joined by clarinetist Margot Leverett to perform sets of Klezmer.

The 5 PM concert is free, but please support Carrizozo Music by purchasing a spaghetti dinner with salad, garlic bread, dessert and drinks, (available from 4 PM, with take-out available and a vegetarian option), as well as browsing our silent auction.

Enjoy an evening of lively music at the Carrizozo Woman's Club on the corner of D Avenue and 11th Street. Dinner tickets are $10 for advance sales or $12 at the door. Call Fran at 575-973-0571 or Elaine at 575-648-2757 or go to www.carrizozomusic.org for ticket information.

There will be a school outreach performance on Monday, April 9th, at 10 AM at the Carrizozo Old Gym. This event is sponsored by Zia Natural Gas Company and the R.D. and Joan Dale Hubbard Foundation.

Lone Piñon is an acoustic conjunto from Northern New Mexico whose music celebrates the diversity of their region's cultural roots. Using violins, accordion, quinta huapangera, bajo sexto, guitarrón, tololoche and vocals in Spanish, English, Nahuatl, and P'urépecha the group has revived and updated the Chicano stringband style that once flourished in New Mexico, bringing a devoted musicianship to Northern New Mexican polkas and chotes, virtuosic Mexican huapango and son calentano, and classic borderlands conjunto.

New Mexico has long been a crossroads of cultures, and its musical landscape reflects its history of diversity. Lone Piñon is part of a new generation of musicians who embrace the full scope of that complexity. Onstage, they cluster around a single microphone and play with a contagious energy, tying together several dozens of dance forms that resonate in their home state. The result is a new sound, rooted in respect for the past and undeniably alive. Having studied and played professionally a variety of styles, Noah Martinez and Jordan Wax brought their experience together in 2013 in an effort to learn the old repertoire of polkas, vases, varsovianas, cunas, inditas, and chotizes that have been played for generations in dances in Northern New Mexico.

To reach the Woman's Club from Route 54, turn west at 12th Street between the 54 Emporium and Roy's Ice Cream Parlor. Turn right onto D Ave and drive one block to the historic WPA building on the corner of 11th Street and D Avenue.

Lincoln County Bird Club (LCBC) announces its May field trip to Rattlesnake Springs near Carlsbad on May 2-3. Rattlesnake Springs is a designated New Mexico Important Bird Area site. According to the Audubon.org website, the area serves as a Spring migrant trap attracting several birds and some out-of-range species. Early May is considered the optimum time to observe birds.

This is an overnight field trip. Arrive the evening of May 2 at a motel/ hotel in either Carlsbad, Artesia or Washington Ranch. Members/ Guests must make their own accommodation reservations then contact LCBC President Jim Edwards, 575-937-5416 or trailsnail1@gmail.com for exact meeting location on the morning of Thursday, May 3 at Rattlesnake Springs or another designated area. Bring a sack lunch, water, refreshments, snacks, binoculars, camera, field guide or apps. Dress in layers and expect to return to Ruidoso late on May 3 unless planning to stay an extra night in the area. A dinner in Artesia or Carlsbad is an option before returning to Ruidoso. For further information, contact Edwards, 575-937-5416 or trailsnail1@gmail.com.

Capitan Library -- Mark Stambaugh, Photographer Extraordinaire by Sharon Stewart

Watching the "likes" to the photos posted on Mark Stambaugh's Facebook page is a testament to his extraordinary "eye" for taking awe-inspiring photos. There is a certain artistic talent necessary to capture breathe-taking photos. Sometimes you learned it in classes, but sometimes it is just an innate ability to frame the perfect shot through the lens.

For more information call the Capitan Public Library at 575-354-3035.

The library is located at 101 E. 2nd Street, Capitan, NM.

Library hours: Tuesday - Thursday: 10 AM – 5:30 PM; Friday & Saturday: 10 AM - 2 PM;

Sunday & Monday: closed. Visit us at: www.capitanlibrary.org OR www.capitanlibrary.blogspot.com

SMILE A WHILE

When I look at chocolate, I hear two voices in my head.

The first one says: "You need to eat that chocolate."

The other voice goes: "You heard correctly, now eat the chocolate."
